Roger: I read about that attack that happened two days ago here...

Worker: Oh, yeah.

Roger: in the paper.

Worker: You read about it?

Roger: Yeah.

Worker: It wasn't that bad, not as bad as the media says.

Roger: Okay.

Worker: It was three white guys beat up a ...

Worker: Yeah ... but... it was nonsense.

Roger: It's nonsense?

Worker: Yeah, that Somali guy was talking crap to the white guy.

Roger: What's that?

Worker: That Somali guy was talking crap to the white guy. So, he kind of had it coming for him, you know?

Roger: Oh, okay.

Worker: ... and they just went all against him.

Roger: All of them ganged up on him?

Worker: Yeah, but he only got punched by one guy.

Roger: Did he have brass knuckles?

Worker: Nooo!

Worker: Then, there was a little Somali kid with him...

Roger: Uh-huh

Worker: and he said he got hit in the head with a chair.

Worker: That kid just ran out. He didn't get any hit.

Roger: He didn't get hit?

Worker: No.

Roger: Why did they do that?

Worker: It's the media... media, yeah?

Roger: They wanted to make a big story out of it?

Worker: Yesterday, we had reporters all day. It was kind of annoying. They were reporting something that didn't happen, you know?

Roger: Oh, okay.

Worker: Yeah, he just got hit and they made a huge thing about it.

Roger: They... he got hit?

Worker: He just got hit once in the head and they made a huge thing out of it.

Roger: But he was talking crap to them, first?

Worker: Yeah, yeah.

Worker: He had it coming for him, you know?

Roger: Okay.

Worker: Yeah.

Worker: (speaking Spanish to cook.)

Roger: Alright. I'm a blogger. Do you mind if I say that somebody here told me that?

Worker: Yeah, go ahead.

Roger: It's alright?

Worker: Yeah, just say "a witness."

Roger: A witness, okay.

Roger: Thank you. I appreciate it very much.
